|                | The playing field appears tidy and well cared for. There is an issue of  |             |  |  |  |

|                                  | Cemeteries I took a walk with Heather around both cemeteries in Pilning and we thought they looked well-kept and the grass and strimming is being done. The work we did on the graves made an improvement but weeds are growing back. Perhaps we should consider another working session later in the year so we can keep on top of the problem. A few graves still need gravel to top them up.  |    |
|                                  | Northwick Cemetery I took a walk around and found the area looking well cared for, the appearance somewhat spoilt by the ground inside the fence where weeds and grass are growing fast and ivy has started to reclaim the tower. I know it can now be thought of as dangerous to allow people to work within the area but it does seem a shame.   |    |
|                                  | I noticed that the sign saying that the Parish Council is responsible for the cemetery has not yet been replaced. I thought we had agreed at a previous meeting to do this.  |    |

| Plot 8 remains untouched.  |      |
